aloha to all the oahu county council members who voted to give the people the choice and knowledge about choosing gmo or non gmo food by passing 12-57.

here is a question for those who may still have doubts.

if you were given a choice of eating a gmo corn on the cob or a non gmo corn on the cob, which one would you choose?

the same question for taro or poi. which bag would you buy?

when i fly to your island, i will feel much better when i eat at your restaurants and buy food from the stores or farmers market, knowing the food is labeled.

mahalo nui!
