Written Testimony

Aloha, My name is Kehaulani Lum and I am the Board Secretary of the Living Life Source Foundation. LLSF is a non-profit organization which reaches out to 100s of people annually who suffer from a lack of housing, education, health, and healing well-being. Bills 20 and 21, relating to Accessory Dwelling Units (ADUs), are innovative, cost-effective, and timely responses to the dramatic need for affordable housing on O`ahu. ADUs create rental housing, provide a flexible housing option, help homeowners afford their homes, enable kupuna to age in place, promote sustainability, and support the local economy. Moreover, they cultivate traditional Hawaiian values of aloha, lokahi and malama within our community, by fostering mutually-beneficial relationships between landowners and tenants. Sharing one's space, one's time, one's energy, and one's compassion is at the heart of this system of living. We thank you for your consideration of these measures and look forward to a positive outcome for all of Hawai`i Nei. Mahalo nui loa, Kehau
