Written Testimony

Both Bills represent a positive step to remedy several unsafe health and traffic situations in the Kakaako neighborhood. Private parking and existing unprepared potholes are a nemesis to both traffic and pedestrians who use the road and crosswalk. Flooding and the stench of the sewer also detract from an otherwise improving neighborhood experience. Thank you for the opportunity to testify in favor of the $10,000 amendment for storm drain repairs to Bill 14 and the $125,000 for acquiring a portion of Waimanu Street from the driveway entrance of Imperial Plaza to Ward Avenue as an amendment to Bill 15.
