Written Testimony
Surfrider Spirit Sessions is a great program/organization that rehabilitates troubled kids through teaching them to surf and learn positive ways to live their lives. I've been volunteering with SSS for over a year now and I am always impressed with their motivation and drive to continue helping these kids each and every week at the beach. Without this funding, the program will suffer significantly and efforts to raise money will take away from the ability to teach these kids life skills that will help them become good citizens of Hawaii.
