This historic spring belongs to all of us who live on the fertile coast of Maunalua Bay - and that includes all the sea and fresh-water creatures and local plants and birds who thrive here. Cattle from the farms would come down to drink the clear water. Ship captains would stop at the bay to fill up their water casks. But it's not just a relic of a more rural lifestyle. It's a place of beauty and inspiration. It must not be lost. In our hearts we know that the pono decision is to show respect for nature and the quiet beauty of our island home. Please vote to preserve this precious source of fresh water by KEEPING CLEAN WATER FUNDING IN THE BUDGET FOR KANEWAI SPRING. Mahalo
