With the continued amount of homeless that have inundated Kakaako, most recently the Kawaihau/Cooke St Mini Park, more needs to be done to enforce park hours, obstruction on public sidewalks, and illegal lodging. I live in the neighboring condo, Imperial Plaza, where I am the president of the AOA Board of Directors. We have been taking care of this park for the last 25 years, but the influx of homeless have made that upkeep dangerous. We ask the City Council for its support to help us in maintaining the park so that it can be used by all.

Written Testimony I live in the Imperial Plaza in Kakaako and experience homeless conditions daily. I ask the Coucil to take whatever action is necessary to provide a safe refuge for the homeless and return the safe use of public space to residents.
